Scriptural Reflection on Stewardship

Saints Peter and Paul worked tirelessly to spread the Gospel. Not all can be apostles, but we, too, must be good stewards of our vocations, using the gifts we've been given in the service of God's kingdom.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Friday, July 4th
9 A.M. MASS ONLY!!

Food Pantry

St. Nicholas is requesting a volunteer from St. Anne's to help with sorting the food on the 2nd THURSDAY of each month at 4:30 p.m. in St. Nicholas Rectory on Ferry Street, JC. If you're able to be help, please contact Georgene at the rectory. The next Food Pantry "Stocking" will be JULY 10TH for about an hour.

REMINDER: PLEASE CONTINUE CONTRIBUTING TO ST. ANNE'S FOOD PANTRY ON A MONTHLY BASIS.

The "Food Pantry" is distributed from St. Nicholas' Parish with all three parishes (St. Anne, St. Nicholas, St. Paul of the Cross) each contributing non-perishable food throughout the year. . Please place food in receptacle provided in the church vestibule. Thank you.

HOLY HOUR

Holy Hour will be canceled for the months of June, July and August.

Please be faithful to continue the Holy Hour at home with prayers for the priests, religious men and women and an increase of vocations to the priesthood and the religious life of the Church.

VOCATIONS

"...you are Peter." In today's Gospel, and uniquely on today's feast, the Church is reminded of the supremacy of Saint Peter. There are hints spread throughout the Gospel, but none is as determinative as this Gospel. The power Christ bestows on Peter is unique to him, and Saint Peter becomes the human foundation of the Church based on Christ's gift.

Are you willing to follow the successor of Saint Peter as he guides us to Christ's eternal Kingdom? If so, you may have a priestly or religious vocation. Pray for the intercession of the canonized/beatified popes, as well as the health of long life of our current Holy Father and contact the Office of Vocations at kellybar@rcan.org or 973.497.4365.

The Year of Saint Paul

2,000th Anniversary ♦ Birth of Saint Paul, Apostle

Gaining the Pauline Plenary Indulgence on June 28/29

The Holy Father has granted an opportunity for the faithful to gain a Plenary Indulgence on this Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul in observance of The Pauline Year. The Indulgence may be gained once a day under the usual conditions (i.e. sacramental Confession, freedom from all attachment to sin, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father), if one participates in a religious function or in a pious exercise (viz. Mass) held publicly in honor of the Apostle of the Gentiles, concluding with the recitation of The Lord's Prayer, The Profession of Faith (i.e. Creed), and an Invocation of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Paul the Apostle, closely linking such acts of devotion to the memory of the Prince of the Apostles, Saint Peter (e.g. Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Apostles, pray for us. Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us). This indulgence may be applied to the deceased.

Catholics impeded by sickness or for other legitimate or important reasons, as long as they have the intention of fulfilling the other conditions as soon as possible, can gain the Plenary Indulgence by joining spiritually in a jubilee celebration in honor of Saint Paul and offering their prayers and suffering for Christian unity.

What is an Indulgence?

The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults tells us, "Every sin has consequences. It disrupts our communion with God and the Church, weakens our ability to resist temptation and hurts others. The necessity of healing these consequences, once the sin itself has been forgiven, is called temporal punishment. Prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and other works of charity can take away entirely or diminish this temporal punishment. Because of the fullness of redemption obtained for us by Christ, the Church attaches to certain prayers and actions an indulgence or pardon, that is, the full or partial remission of temporal punishment due to sin. Christ, acting through the Church, brings about the healing of the consequences of sin when an individual uses such a prayer or engages in such an action." (Chapter 18)

June 29, 2008 – June 29, 2009—Gaining the Pauline Plenary Indulgence

During The Pauline Year, beginning with the Vigil of the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul on June 28, 2008, and continuing through June 29, 2009, the Holy Father has granted the opportunity for the faithful to gain a Plenary Indulgence. The Indulgence may be gained at public religious functions in any place of worship on June 28/29, 2008 and June 29, 2009.

In addition to the above, in the Archdiocese of Newark, one may gain the Plenary Indulgence once a day at public religious functions on each of the First Fridays of the month in the following churches:

The JOURNAL will highlight the different activities during the celebration and contain advertisements and well-wishes (a memoriam, living wishes, birth announcements, congratulatorys on graduations, engagements, weddings, special anniversaries, etc) to and from many supporters.
