VOCATIONS

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." In the secular world, the priesthood and religious life is not often viewed as a life of freedom—obedience, celibacy and poverty are not the virtues most commonly associated with one that possesses a light burden in their life. However, as Christ reminds us in the Gospel today, He is the one that takes the burden upon Himself. The life of service that the priest and religious enter allows them to be free from the true burdens that are experienced in life-- burdens such as arrogance, lust and greed. When the promises or vows of poverty, chastity and obedience are made, the priest or religious free themselves to be true servants of God and His Church.

Are you willing to let go of these worldly burdens and take the steps necessary to be one of those who answers Christ's call to the priesthood or religious life? If so, you may have a vocation. Pray for the strength Christ gives and contact the Vocation Office at 973.497.4365 or email kelly-bar@rcan.org.

St. Anne's Festival JOURNAL ADVERTISEMENT

St. Anne's Festival 2008 is set to take place on July 25, 26, 27, 2008. Eleven years ago, our Parish began a 3-day indoor/outdoor Festival in Honor of our Patroness, St. Anne. The response to this new tradition has been a wonderful combination of social and liturgical activities in an effort to strengthen and build our sense of community! In fact, it has become the most anticipated event of the year.

In keeping with our tradition, we will once again be producing a commemorative journal for St. Anne's Festival 2008!

The JOURNAL will highlight the different activities during the celebration and contain advertisements and well-wishes (a memoriam, living wishes, birth announcements, congratulatorys on graduations, engagements, weddings, special anniversaries, etc) to and from many supporters.

The journal pages are 8 1/2" x 11" and are available at the following rates:

Cross International Catholic Outreach

Under the direction of its chairman, Bishop Sam Jacobs, Cross International Catholic Outreach is working to establish a stronger spiritual relationship between America's Catholic parishes and their counterparts overseas - with the ultimate goal of helping the poorest of the poor. Next weekend we welcome Rev. Octavio

Muguerza who comes to us on behalf of Cross International Catholic Outreach. Parishes in underdeveloped countries represent more than an important source of spiritual truth for their community. They also stand as a beacon of hope for impoverished families who have nowhere else to turn for help. Come and hear how we can make a difference in the lives of our less fortunate brothers and sisters in the Third World.
