Scriptural Reflections on Stewardship

At the conclusion of their missionary journey, Paul and Barnabas tell the Antioch community all that the Lord had accomplished in their preaching the kingdom of God.

This kingdom, to be marked by our love for each other, will reach its fulfillment in new heavens and a new earth.

Every Tuesday, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the church from 3 to 4 p.m. It is an hour of prayer for the priests, religious men and women and an increase of vocations to the priesthood and the religious life of the Church.

We invite you to come and spend time with the Lord for these intentions and for your personal requests. Holy Hour closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Evangelization Corner..... John 13:31-33

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives the commandment of Love. He says, "I give you a new commandment; Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." We hear and understand this and yet we know this is very hard. After all, we are imperfect and we so often fail to love as Jesus loves. We become angry, fearful, jealous or resentful, and when this happens, our hearts grow tight and close up. With tight and closed hearts, it's almost impossible to love. So how can we follow Jesus' Commandment?

Sharing Ideas: Describe a situation in which you find it hard to love someone.

Acting: Write a one-sentence prayer to Jesus that you can say to yourself when you find yourself in a situation like the one you described in "Sharing Ideas."
