Keeping In Touch

What is the Pope up to? What's going on in the Church around the world?

If you have questions like this and have looked in vain on TV and the newspapers for the answer, the Pontifical Mission Societies may have the answer for you. Church news is often ignored by secular media unless it is a matter of scandal or something unavoidable like a papal election. If you have a smart phone you can now get the latest Vatican and Church news from the Vatican News Service and the Fides News Service through the MISSIO app from the Pontifical Mission Societies. This free app is available for both the iPhone and Android platforms through iTunes and Google Play. Simply type MISSIO into the search box, download and catch up on all the latest happenings in Rome and around the world. See and hear the news that the networks don't think is important.
